

RSVP Program

Michigan State Council K of C

By participating in the RSVP Program, a Council sends funds to a Seminarian, or Novices or Postulants in a Religious Order or Community, to help with expenses. Supreme Council will then refund $100 for each $500 given to an individual, with a maximum of a $400 refund per individual supported.

During the 2009 – 2010 Fraternal Year, a total of 158 Councils and Assemblies (Units) in the Michigan Jurisdiction donated a total of $212,495 to 362 Men and 21 Women. A total of $42,300 was refunded by Supreme to these Councils and Assemblies.

Michigan was 2nd in the Order in number of Units participating, Donations, Refunds, and Male awardees. Michigan led the Order in number of Female awardees.
